eMedia's Award-winning Guitar, Bass, Piano, and Singing Method Software Now Available as Classroom Licenses, and Lab Packs

Seattle, WA – October 10, 2016. eMedia Music Corp., developer and distributor of award-winning music education software, has begun shipping Classroom License and Lab Pack versions of its eMedia Guitar Method, eMedia Bass Method, eMedia Piano and Keyboard Method, and eMedia Singing Method software.

Classroom Licenses – A great way for one instructor to use a single computer and a Smart Board or overhead projector to teach a class of students. This school license covers IP use for presentations and academic-level support.

Pricing on Classroom License versions of eMedia Guitar Method, Bass Method, Piano Method and Singing Method is only $199.95.

Lab Packs – This is the perfect solution if you have a school music lab with a small to medium number of computers. Pricing is based on the number of computers, not the number of students. It is a one-time purchase with no continuing subscription costs. It is for school-only use where multiple students might be sharing the same computer.

Pricing for eMedia Guitar Method and eMedia Bass Method is: 5 Computers, $199.95; 10 Computers, $399.95; 20 Computers, $749.95

eMedia Piano and Keyboard Method and eMedia Singing Method feature enhanced performance assessment and their pricing is: 5 Computers, $299.95; 10 Computers, $499.95; 20 Computers, $849.95.
